The 1959

This is Swain

When Assembly is over . . .
a friendly atmosphere has been developed among the students.

The doors to our future success...
We came, we learned, we conquered.

A Competitor...
Factory of many champions. We work, we play, we win.

During the break...
Relaxed, and enjoying leisure moments.

Peg

"The Annual - 5 boys." - ...

The crowded lunch room...
Enjoying our meals and the fellowship with our friends.

Music, recreation, curriculum...
These help to make our day complete.

The recreation hall...
Such games are enjoyed each day in the "old gym."

For Understanding Guidance . . .

LILLIAN F. THOMASSON

We, the members of the 1959 RIDGERUNNER Staff, dedicate this publication to two people who have been key influences in our lives. They have taught us to strive for the things that make life worth-while and to recognize a high standard of conduct in dealing with our fellow-men. They have, through their untiring effort, helped to make our Senior Year a success. . .

...In the years to come, we can think back with fond memory to these who have made our present well-being possible. Now as our final tribute for guidance, for devotion, and for a never-failing desire to support, we wish to express our great appreciation and heart felt gratitude to you...

Class History

In the late months of 1947, 173 scared, timid children started to school. It wasn't exactly what they had expected, but...

As they climbed the ladder of educational success, they looked forward to the day when they would reach high school.

In 1955, we finally became Freshmen. We came from several different schools and like all Freshmen before us, we were scared and ignorant to the ways of high school. As we struggled through our Freshman year, we learned more and more of Swain High's ways.

As Sophomores, we had a greater feeling of security and a sense of belonging to Swain High. Our days were happier toward the end of the year when we had passed biology, world history, and English.

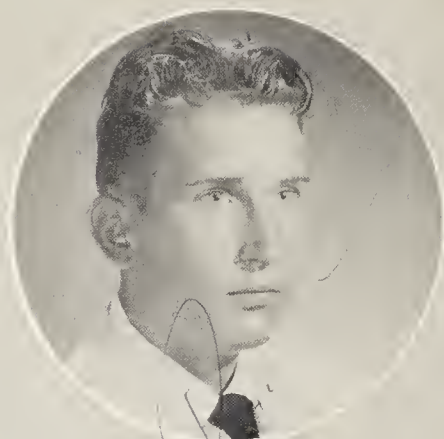

The next year we finally became Juniors with our work laid out for us: Junior-Senior Prom and U. S. History. We strived for these goals and obtained them with great success.

At last came our big year, the time we had always been looking forward to when we were to be the "big wheels" of Swain High. Our Washington Trip, Senior Play, and our Senior Prom were great events but graduation was looked forward to as the greatest event of all. We did not look to graduation as the end but only the beginning of a grand and glorious future.

Respectfully Submitted,

Nancy, you, and only you can know what I mean when I say - real friends are valuable to me. It means so much to feel assured that you are a good friend and I'm very thankful for it.

Russ Whiteside - Manager

I hope we can be roommates next year! Want we have a good time?

As I close this, and last annual message I feel like crying. I'll never forget the pleasant sentiments of our high school days.

Nancy Gregory, I'll never forget you!

Bryson City, North Carolina

Nancy - I'll never forget all of your advice. Thank you for listening to me just "yap" when I didn't feel like saying anything else. Thanks too for listening to my dreams - no one else knows that much.

You're the most mature friend I know and I think that's one reason we understand each other so well.

THE PINK MOTEL

Nancy, always be good and stay the same sweet person you are.
